The Dedication of the Basilica of St. Mary Major in Rome The Dedication of the Basilica of St Mary Major is a feast day in the General Roman Calendar, optionally celebrated annually on 5 August with the rank of memorial.

St. Benedicta of the Cross Edith Stein, was a German Jewish philosopher who converted to Roman Catholicism and became a Discalced Carmelite nun. She is canonized as a martyr and saint of the Catholic Church, and she is one of six co-patron saints of Europe.

St. Sixtus II Pope Sixtus II was the Pope or Bishop of Rome from August 31, 257 until his death on August 6, 258. He was martyred along with seven deacons, including Lawrence of Rome during the persecution of the Catholic Church by Emperor Valerian.

St. Lawrence Saint Lawrence or Laurence was one of the seven deacons of the city of Rome, Italy, under Pope Sixtus II who were martyred in the persecution of the Christians that the Roman Emperor Valerian ordered in 258

The Transfiguration of the Lord is an episode in the New Testament in which Jesus is transfigured and becomes radiant in glory upon a mountain. The Synoptic Gospels describe it, and 2 Peter 1:16–18 refers to it; it has also been hypothesized that the Gospel of John alludes to it in John 1:14. Peter, James, John, Jesus, Moses, and Elijah were on the mount of transfiguration.

St. Cajetan Gaetano dei Conti di Thiene, known as Saint Cajetan, was an Italian Catholic priest and religious reformer, co-founder of the Theatines. He is recognized as a saint in the Catholic Church, and his feast day is August 7.

St. Dominic, also known as Dominic of Osma and Dominic of Caleruega, often called Dominic de Guzmán and Domingo Félix de Guzmán, was a Castilian priest and founder of the Dominican Order. Dominic is the patron saint of astronomers

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL SOCIETY REFLECTION

August 4, 2019

The rich man in the parable would have had enough in his present storehouses; seeking more, he builds more storehouses only to die and not enjoy his abundance anyway. We work hard for what we think is important to us, but we may end up with nothing because we have missed the whole point: life. We tend to think we can provide for our own future, but the gospel reminds us that the future is God's. What we struggle all our lives to learn is that life does not consist of possessions nor our perceived security, but of being possessed by God. We belong to God and God can demand an accounting of us at any time. The only security we truly possess is a loving relationship with God. (Living Liturgy, p.184)

COFFEE AND DONUTS

Coffee and Donuts will be offered today, Sunday, August 4, after all Masses in the gym. Come, enjoy and meet your fellow parishioners.

OUR LADY of the ASSUMPTION SCHOOL

Dear Our Lady of the Assumption Catholic School Community:

Every day I become more and more impressed with our community, and how it truly is a family! I would like to particularly welcome all our new families. It has been a busy summer, but also a very productive summer. I have several updates to provide you:

1) We have hired a secretary and am finalizing a 1st grade teacher. I still have a couple of positions I am working on resolving: We need to hire an Educational Assistant for Junior Kindergarten. The position is from 7:15 am to 3:15 pm throughout the school year. We are also in need of another individual to serve as a 4-hour Educational Assistant and 1.5 hours in the After-School Program (total 5.5 hours). The hours would be 11:30 am to 5:00 pm throughout the school year.

2) Home School Association (HSA): The primary goal of The HSA is to assist the school in accomplishing its mission. The HSA, under the control and supervision of the Pastor and the Principal, is responsible for promoting cooperation and goodwill between parents and teachers, sponsoring fundraising and social activities and enhancing hospitality by encouraging all members to become involved in HSA activities. This is a vital organization to our school. It is also a great opportunity for parents to help the school and their children in a very meaningful way.

3) Start Time, Beginning of the Day Procedure: One of the things I have been working with various groups on over this summer is an effective start of the daytime and process. I wanted to have a process that was both good for families and for learning. Instruction will be starting at 8:15 am this year. This will be the start of the school day. Students will be expected to be in their seats ready to go. Families should plan on having their students here no later than 8:05 am. We will have supervision available for families starting at 7:15 am in the gymnasium. JK and K families are encouraged to walk their child over to the playground area or have an older sibling take their child over to the playground area. There will be school supervision on the fields and the playground. Parents will also be welcome to hang out with their children on the playground.

Upcoming Events:

August 5 Teachers report to Our Lady of the Assumption Catholic School
August 9 JK and K Jumpstart (10:00 – 11:30 am) (More details will be provided next week)
August 12 First Day of School - Opening of School Ceremony (8:15 am)
Early Release Day (11:45 am) No Lunch Served
August 15 Solemnity of Our Lady of the Assumption (Mass Day)
August 18 Parish Picnic (1:00 pm – 4:00 pm)
August 21 Curriculum Night (6:00 pm – 8:00 pm)

Uniform Store:

The Uniform Store will be open during the school year from 3:30 to 4:00 pm on Wednesday and from 8:00 to 8:30 am on Thursdays. If you need to schedule a time outside of the above times, please contact Marianne Baca at mbaca@olacs.org.

Thank you for being so warm and welcoming throughout this transition. I am so excited for this school year. It will be a great year for the Our Lady of the Assumption FAMILY!

God Bless!

Mr. Nestorick,
Principal

LITURGY CORNER

USING OUR TIME WISELY

A jar of honey lasts practically forever. The oldest jar of honey ever discovered was over five thousand years old. Honey is quite different from market-fresh produce, then; because most fruits and vegetables last only a few days, we treat them carefully. At this time of summer, we rush to find recipes for cherries and cucumbers so we won't waste a single one. We wouldn't feel that same urgency about honey.

In our own way, we are as delightful and fragile as ripe produce. Today's readings urge us not to spoil, but to make good use of our limited time on earth. Ecclesiastes reminds us that because God provides for us now and always, we can manage our daily affairs without anxiety. Saint Paul encourages the Colossians to keep thoughts of heaven in everything they do, and Jesus himself asks us to treasure not earthly wealth, but God alone.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Apart from the period from Thanksgiving through Christmas, the summer is a favored time for family reunions. We trace family trees and recall our origins. Worship has a family tree as well, and the way we celebrate today has been influenced by various styles and customs through the centuries. We are Western Christians of the Latin Rite. By far, we are the most numerous Western Christians, but there are other ritual families as well. The Archdiocese of Milan in Italy follows the Ambrosian Rite, Toledo in Spain preserves the Mozarabic Rite and the Arab language, and Lyons in France is home to the Gallican Rite. Other liturgical families, such as the Celtic in Ireland and the Sarum in England, faded away after the Reformation. Until recent times, members of some ancient religious orders such as Carmelites and Trappists followed a pattern of Mass that varied slightly from the plan observed in Latin Rite parishes.

Isn't the Catholic Church the same everywhere? Not at all. It never has been! The existence of so many liturgical families in the West reminds us that unity, not uniformity, is what the Church seeks to achieve among her children. We are united in faith, but wonderfully diverse in rituals, ceremonies, languages, customs, and spirituality.

NO ONE'S ENEMY

May I be no one's enemy, and may I be the friend of that which is eternal and abides.

—St. Eusebius of Vercelli

THE EFFECTS OF PRAYER

Whoever prays much by night, that person's face is fair by day.—Islamic saying

USANDO NUESTRO TIEMPO SABIAMENTE

Un frasco con miel prácticamente dura por siempre. El frasco de miel más antiguo descubierto tenía casi más de cinco mil años de antigüedad. La miel es muy diferente de cualquier otro alimento producido; entonces porque muchas frutas y vegetales solo duran unos pocos días si las cuidamos. En este tiempo del verano, nos apresuramos a encontrar recetas para cerezas y pepinos para no desperdiciar ni uno solo. Pero no tendríamos la misma prisa para la miel.

En nuestra propia manera, somos como una de esas frutas y vegetales frágiles y maduros. Las lecturas de hoy nos sugieren a no echarnos a perder, sino a hacer un buen uso de nuestro limitado tiempo en la tierra. El libro del Eclesiastés nos recuerda que ya que Dios provee para nosotros ahora y siempre, podemos administrar nuestros asuntos diarios sin ninguna ansiedad. San Pablo anima a los colosenses a mantener pensamientos del cielo en todo lo que hacen y Jesús mismo nos pide que no atesoremos riqueza terrenal sino solo a Dios.

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

Del 1 al 5 de agosto los capitalinos en El Salvador celebran la fiesta del Salvador del Mundo, cuando recuerdan la Transfiguración de Jesús en el Monte Tabor. Como muchas fiestas patronales en Latinoamérica esta semana está llena de carnavales y desfiles. La celebración principal es una procesión religiosa con la imagen de Jesús, el Divino Salvador del mundo. La estatua de Jesús con sus brazos extendidos en bendición es llevada desde la Basílica del Sagrado Corazón hasta la Catedral Metropolitana. Vestida de un rojo que recuerda su pasión, la imagen es cargada sobre los hombros de una veintena de fieles. Al llegar a la catedral la imagen patronal es puesta en una torre de más de 20 metros de alto. Eventualmente la estatua revestida de blanco aparece de una esfera encima de la torre en medio de gritos, aplausos y cantos. Esta esfera azul representa el mundo entero, mundo salvado por Cristo. La transfiguración de esta imagen en San Salvador recuerda la pasión y resurrección de Jesús, eventos claves que han hecho de él, el Salvador del Mundo entero.

ENEMIGO DE NADIE

Que no sea enemigo de nadie, y que sea amigo de aquello que es perdurable y eterno.

—San Eusebio de Vercelli

LOS EFECTOS DE LA ORACIÓN

Aquel que reza mucho en la noche, su cara estará hermosa durante el día.
