Mission Statement:

Created in God's image, we are the people of Our Lady of the Assumption Catholic Parish. In communion with the Roman Catholic Church and the Archdiocese of Santa Fe, we dedicate ourselves to living the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Guided by the Holy Spirit; nourished by the Sacraments; and under the Patronage of Our Lady of the Assumption; we strive to use our varied gifts and rich heritage to build the Body of Christ through worship, prayer, education, and service to all.

St. JOHN I: St. John I, Pope and Martyr was elected Pope while he was still an archdeacon upon the death of Pope Hormisdas in 523. Pope John was imprisoned by order of Theodoric and died a short time later as a result of the treatment he experienced.	ST. BERNARDINE of SIENA was an Italian priest and Franciscan missionary. He was a systematizer of Scholastic economics. His popular preaching made him famous during his own lifetime, although it was frequently directed against sorcery, gambling, infanticide, witchcraft, sodomy (homosexuality) and usury (as commonly practiced by Jews). Bernardino was later canonized by the Catholic Church as a saint - where is also referred to as "the Apostle of Italy" for his efforts to revive the country's Catholic faith during the 15th century.

ST. ISIDORE: Isidore has become the patron of farmers and rural communities. In particular, he is the patron of Madrid, Spain, and of the United States National Rural Life Conference. He was known for his love of the poor, and there are accounts of Isidore's supplying them miraculously with food. He had a great concern for the proper treatment of animals. He died May 15, 1130, and was declared a saint in 1622, with Saints Ignatius of Loyola, Francis Xavier, Teresa of Avila, and Philip Neri. Together, the group is known in Spain as "the five saints."	FIFTH SUNDAY OF EASTER Jesus said to his disciples: "Do not let your hearts be troubled. Trust in God still, and trust in me. There are many rooms in my Father's house; if there were not, I should have told you. I am going now to prepare a place for you, and after I have gone and prepared you a place, I shall return to take you with me; so that where I am you may be too."

RECYCLING

OLA School is still recycling and saving labels. We take:

- computer cartridges, laser & inkjet
- cell phones
- soft plastic rings
- (The city does not recycle the above items.)
- Aluminum tabs from soft drink cans
- Campbell Labels & General Mills labels.

They can be sent to the School or Parish Office.

HELP US RECYCLE!

ALUMINUM CAN COLLECTION

In order to take care of God's earth and raise needed funds for new library/classroom books, OLA School will be collecting aluminum cans at the Saturday Vigil Mass and all Sunday Masses. This year, a large blue recycle bin will be placed next to the large NW gate of OLA Hall. Just bag your cans and toss them over the fence and into the recycle bin. (Collection method was changed for safety reasons). We are also entering a recycle challenge. Help us to win the State Challenge again!

WE CAN DO IT!!

BANNS OF MARRIAGE

II. Aaron Michael Heckler and Cara Mia Owen

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL SOCIETY REFLECTION

May 14, 2017

Jesus is the Way-the Truth-and the Life, because of his relationship with the Father. The good news is that when we relate to Jesus, we are relating to God. And when we encounter the risen Christ we encounter God. We encounter the risen Christ by doing the works of Christ and by recognizing Christ in the other. Thus the challenge here is that our baptism plunges us not only into a relationship with the Triune God but also with each other.
Therefore, our belief in the resurrection and the good news of salvation isn't something that stays in our heads but is played out concretely in the way we treat others in justice, mercy, forgiveness, and love. That is the good news! (Living Liturgy,p.134)

GIFT BEARER ANNOUNCEMENT

We are in desperate need of families or individuals to volunteer to bring up the gifts of bread and wine at the 5:00 pm Saturday Mass and the 8:30 am Bilingual Mass on Sundays. If you would like to volunteer--- blue forms are available in the literature rack at the back of the Church near the rear south entrance. If you already volunteer and would like to change or add a Mass, please fill out a new form also. You may also contact Deacon Jack Granato at 271-0551.

VOLUNTEERS WANTED

OLA has received a gift to buy clothes and necessities for young children in need. Drivers are needed to take the parent and child to purchase what is needed and then return them home. If you are willing to volunteer, please call the Parish Office at (505)256-9818 and leave your name and best telephone number to call you.

CATHOLIC MEN'S MINISTRY AT OLA

We invite all men to learn what Catholics believe and why, with Bishop Robert Barron's 10-part series WORDonFIRE Catholicism. Sessions will be held the 1st and 3rd Thursday of each month from 6:30-8:00 pm in the Parish Office.
Attendance at previous sessions is not required. For additional information contact Scott at 269-4827.

LITURGY CORNER

THE WAY

Today we sense the apostles' trepidation as they begin to realize that the Lord would soon be leaving them. In their fear, they ask, "Master, we do not know where you are going; how can we know the way?" (John 14:5). Jesus tells them that he is the way. The Easter season has been a time of growing in Easter faith so that we, too, may learn to know that Jesus is the way. We can take comfort in the Lord's promise that he is going to his Father's house to prepare a place for us, his chosen people who have been called out of darkness into God's wonderful light. As the paschal candle continues to burn during this holy season, let us remember that in baptism we were given the light of Christ. With Christ our light as the beacon lighting our way, let us march toward the glory of Pentecost.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

In many parish churches, more rarely in monastery churches and cathedrals, the tabernacle with the Blessed Sacrament is visible from a doorway or aisle in the church. Normally, a person is to give the proper sign of reverence, a genuflection, when passing in proximity to the tabernacle. The word "genuflect" comes from Latin roots meaning bending (or flexing) the knee. A common-sense exception to the rule is for a sacristan who is taking care of the church and can't be genuflecting every thirty seconds during a vacuum run. Also excepted are persons in procession entrusted with important symbols of the Lord's presence. So, a cross bearer or a minister carrying the Gospel book, or ministers on their way to their Communion stations do not genuflect. For everyone else, the usual sign of reverence for the Lord's presence in the Blessed Sacrament is to genuflect on the right knee.

The oldest form of reverence during prayer in our tradition is standing; kneeling or genuflecting is a sign borrowed from old civic practice. The posture of kneeling, even on one knee, is a sign of submission. Servants would take this position before their masters in the ancient world. It said: I'm not running away, I'm yours, I'm here for you. This is what your genuflection says when you enter a Catholic church where the place of reservation of the Blessed Sacrament is visible to you: I'm yours.

LONGING

The hand will not reach out for what the heart does not long for.—German proverb

EL CAMINO

Hoy sentimos la perturbación de los apóstoles cuando empiezan a darse cuenta de que el Señor pronto los dejará. Temerosos preguntan: "Señor, no sabemos a dónde vas ¿cómo podemos saber el camino?" (Juan 14:5). Jesús les dice que él es el camino. El tiempo de Pascua ha sido un tiempo para crecer en la fe pascual para que, así también, nosotros podamos darnos cuenta de que Jesús es el camino. Nos consuela la promesa del Señor de que va a la casa de su Padre a preparar un lugar para nosotros, su pueblo elegido que ha sido llamado de las tinieblas a la luz admirable de Dios. Mientras el cirio pascual continúa ardiendo en este tiempo santo, recordemos que en nuestro bautismo nos dieron la luz de Cristo. Con Cristo, nuestra luz como faro iluminando nuestro camino, marchemos hacia la gloria de Pentecostés.

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

Después de la muerte de Jesús, los discípulos habían regresado a su antiguo oficio de la pesca para así ganarse la vida, pues no sabían qué hacer. El Jesús resucitado tuvo que pescárselos de nuevo. En su tercera aparición, Jesús pidió a los discípulos que lanzaran sus redes al mar. Estos sacaron 153 peces del mar, número representativo de todas las naciones del mundo. Esta pesca milagrosa que tuvo lugar en Galilea, nos recuerda otra pesca milagrosa hecha en Brasil.

En 1716 tres pescadores pescaban en el Río Paraíba y al lanzar la red al agua sacaron una estatua de la Virgen de la Concepción. Después, la pesca fue tan abundante que por poco hundía el barco.

La virgencita de 36 centímetros había pasado muchos años en el agua por lo cual había tomado el rico color oscuro de muchos latinoamericanos. La devoción a Nuestra Señora de Aparecida creció hasta que la familia que la había encontrado la dio al pueblo para que en 1745 se construyera para ella una capilla pública. De esta manera, Aparecida pasó de las redes a los corazones, dando una rica pesca de personas para su Hijo.

SECOND COLLECTION

There will be a 2nd collection next week for the National Black and Indian Missions: the National collection for Black and Indian people continues as the embodiment of the Churches concern for evangelizing the Black and Indian Peoples of the United States. The funds are distributed as grants to dioceses throughout the United States, supporting and strengthening evangelization programs which otherwise would cease. The collection was formerly known as the Black and Indian Home Mission Collection. A portion of this collection is allocated to the Catholic Home Missions.

UPCOMING 7th ANNUAL CATHOLIC SUMMER SOCCER LEAGUE

Archdiocesan Parishes are encouraged to form middle school and high school age teams who wish to participate in weekly games and a tournament at the end of the season. The season starts June 3rd and ends July 22nd. Games will be played at the St. Pius High School Soccer fields (5301 St Josephs Dr. NW, Albuquerque, NM 87120). The cost is $35 per youth, with 17 players per team. Registration deadline is May 19. For more information on how to register your parish teams call Denise (505) 831-8165.

(Must have permission from your pastor to participate)

BARBECUE and BINGO FOR SEMINARIANS

The Office of Stewardship is hosting BBQ and Bingo with the Seminarians! This event kicks off the 2017 Seminarian Endowment Challenge. The Archdiocese of Santa Fe was chosen by Catholic Extension to participate in the 2017 challenge based on our needs as a mission diocese. The Catholic Extension will be matching donations up to $50,000 (minimum $1,000 donation). This gives us an opportunity to continue being "Fishers of Men" and establish a permanent seminarian endowment fund.

The Seminarian Endowment Challenge BBQ and Bingo will take place at the Catholic Center on Saturday, May 20th from 6:30pm to 8:30pm. This is a FREE event to help educate and build community support for the Archdiocese of Santa Fe Seminarians. If you are interested in attending, please RSVP to 505-831-8173 or email stewardship@archdiosf.org by Wednesday, May 17th. There is limited seating, please call or email today to secure your spot.
