PARISH COMMUNICATION

To Our Lady of the Assumption Parishioners:

Please help us update your contact information. During this time of quarantine, Father Domme has been posting communication letters on the Parish website (olacs.org/church) and also sending the letters to those parishioners whose email addresses are on file in the Parish's data system.

Throughout the process of contacting all registered parishioners to update email addresses, we found many phone numbers are no longer in service; consequently, we have no means of contacting these parishioners. If we did not contact you for your email address, please help us update your parish record by sending your current information including your name, address, telephone number and email address to sfrias@olacs.org. Thank you

FIFTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

“Jesus said to his disciples: ‘Do not let your hearts be troubled. You have faith in God; have faith also in me.’”

When things feel out of our control, God extends his hand to us and asks us to commit our destiny to him.

St. Matthias was, according to the Acts of the Apostles, chosen by the apostles to replace Judas Iscariot following the latter's betrayal of Jesus and his subsequent death. His calling as an apostle is unique, in that his appointment was not made personally by Jesus, who had already ascended into heaven, and it was also made before the descent of the Holy Spirit upon the early Church.

Ss. Nereus and Achilleus Martyrs of the Roman military. Members of the elite Praetorian Guard, they were reputedly baptized by St. Peter, exiled from Rome with St. Flavia Domitilla, and eventually beheaded.

St. Isidore the Farmer Isidore the Farm Labourer, also known as Isidore the Farmer, was a Spanish farm worker known for his piety toward the poor and animals. He is the Catholic patron saint of farmers and of Madrid, and of La Ceiba, Honduras. His feast day is celebrated on May 15.

St. Pancras is especially venerated in England because Augustine of Canterbury dedicated his first church to Pancras and his relics were presented as a gift to the king of Northumberland. A district in London is named St. Pancras after him.

ARMED FORCES DAY

Many nations around the world observe some kind of Armed Forces Day to honor their military forces. It is celebrated in the United States as a day to appreciate all active duty service members. This day is not to be confused with Veterans Day or Memorial Day.

Our Lady of Fatima is a Catholic title of the Blessed Virgin Mary based on the famed Marian apparitions reported in 1917 by three shepherd children at the Cova da Iria, in Fátima, Portugal. The three children were Lúcia dos Santos and her cousins Francisco and Jacinta Marto.

DÍA DE LAS FUERZAS ARMADAS

Muchas naciones de todo el mundo observan algún tipo de Día de las Fuerzas Armadas para honrar a sus fuerzas militares. Se celebra en los Estados Unidos como un día para apreciar a todos los miembros del servicio activo. Este día no debe confundirse con el Día de los Veteranos o el Día de los Caídos.

VOCATION

Roman Catholics in the United States spend a good deal of time speaking of “vocation” and the manner in which each of us discerns our vocation for life. In today’s apostolic letter, however, Peter gives us the “cornerstone” of our vocation, the description of what each of us is called to first and foremost by our baptism. He describes our vocation as “a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people of [God’s] own, so that you may announce the praises” of Christ, who called us out of darkness into light (1 Peter 2:9). All of us, no matter what path our life’s vocation may take us down, have been chosen by God, made holy, and anointed as priests in the high priesthood of Christ through baptism. All of this, so that we may announce the praises of Christ. Vocation is given for proclamation at home, in the workplace - wherever life takes us - in service, in word, and in sacrament.

SAINT DAMIEN JOSEPH DE VEUSTER OF MOLOKA’I (1840-1889)

May 10

In the mid-1990s, a heavily bearded, bespectacled Robin Williams appeared on Late Night with David Letterman, whose host was clearly taken aback. Letterman inquired as to why the wild look. Uncharacteristically subdued, the usually manic comic responded that he was producing and starring in a movie about a most extraordinarily compassionate man, Damien, the Leper Priest of Moloka’i.

Some saints transcend religious and ethnic boundaries to touch the heart that beats in each human being: Francis of Assisi; Mother Teresa; and, though Williams’ film was never completed, his admiration speaks, as does Damien’s statue outside the capitol in Honolulu, of this newest saint’s universal appeal. Far from his native Flanders’ idyllic beauty and rich culture, Damien volunteered to bear Christ’s light into Moloka’i’s bleak leper colony, building decent homes, opening schools, establishing clinics, planting farms, sharing the sufferings - and the social stigma - of those with whom he delighted to identify: “We lepers,” he would proudly say when finally he contracted leprosy. Saint Damien challenges us to identify the lepers of our own day, to examine our compassion for and our identification with them.

VOCACIÓN

Los católicos en los Estados Unidos pasan mucho tiempo hablando de “vocación” y la manera en que cada uno de nosotros discierne nuestra vocación en la vida. Sin embargo, en la carta apostólica de hoy, Pedro nos da la “piedra angular” de nuestra vocación, lo primero y principal en el llamado de cada uno de nosotros a raíz de nuestro Bautismo. Él describe nuestra vocación como “estirpe elegida, sacerdocio real, nación consagrada a Dios, pueblo de su propiedad para que proclamen las obras maravillosas de aquél [Cristo] quien nos llamó de las tinieblas a su luz admirable” (1 Pedro 2:9). Todos nosotros, sin importar la senda por la cual nuestra vocación de vida nos lleve, hemos sido elegidos por Dios, hechos santos, y ungidos como sacerdotes en el alto sacerdocio de Cristo por nuestro Bautismo. Todo esto, para que podamos anunciar las maravillas de Cristo. Se nos da una vocación para que proclamemos mediante el servicio, la palabra y el sacramento dentro del hogar, en el trabajo y dondequiera que nos lleve la vida.

SAN ISIDRO LABRADOR (1070-1130)

15 de mayo

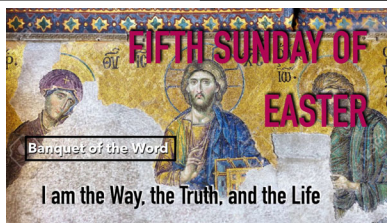

Isidro nació en Madrid y toda su vida trabajó como campesino cerca de su ciudad natal. Siendo campesino trabajó siempre con el mismo patrón, quien lo explotó y sometió a largos jornales de trabajo. Aun así, Isidro se daba tiempo para asistir a la Santa Misa y hacer oración a lo largo del día. Para él habían tres amores indiscutibles: Dios, su familia y la tierra. Siendo muy pobres, él y su esposa María, fueron capaces de ayudar a otros pobres, de tal suerte que la gente llegaba a su casa de piedra por algo más que pan. De hecho, los mismos animales encontraban en ese hogar un lugar de descanso. En los pueblos de América Latina, campesinos por naturaleza, se le considera a Isidro como el patrono de los campesinos y este día se hace una gran procesión con su imagen para pedir a Dios que bendiga la semilla y los instrumentos de trabajo que serán utilizados en el período de cosecha. San Isidro enseña que la explotación es injusta y que aun así, es posible amar al explotador.
