Mission Statement:

Created in God's image, we are the people of Our Lady of the Assumption Catholic Parish. In communion with the Roman Catholic Church and the Archdiocese of Santa Fe, we dedicate ourselves to living the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Guided by the Holy Spirit; nourished by the Sacraments; and under the Patronage of Our Lady of the Assumption; we strive to use our varied gifts and rich heritage to build the Body of Christ through worship, prayer, education, and service to all.

PARISH COMMUNICATION

To Our Lady of the Assumption Parishioners:

Please help us update your contact information. During this time of quarantine, Father Domme has been posting communication letters on the Parish website (olacs.org/church) and also sending the letters to those parishioners whose email addresses are on file in the Parish's data system.

Throughout the process of contacting all registered parishioners to update email addresses, we found many phone numbers are no longer in service; consequently, we have no means of contacting these parishioners. If we did not contact you for your email address, please help us update your parish record by sending your current information including your name, address, telephone number and email address to sfrias@olacs.org. Thank you

RE-SCHEDULING OF EVENTS	SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

THE REASON FOR OUR HOPE

"What is the reason for your hope?" Imagine somebody coming up to you and asking you that question. Not "What are you hoping for?" or "What are you hoping to do?" No, this isn't about our desires for possessions or aspirations for life, it's "Why do you hope?" Peter today tells us that we ought to be ready to give an answer to this question. Truth be told, few of us spend much time thinking about why we hope. Luckily, the scriptures today give us our answers. We hope because Christ suffered for us, in order that we might come to God. We hope because we know that, in the Spirit, God grants us another Advocate through Christ to remain with us always. No matter what we might hope for, whatever we might hope to do, we must always first know and proclaim the reason for our hope: the presence of God in Christ, with us through the power of the Spirit.

RAZÓN DE NUESTRA ESPERANZA

"¿Cuál es la razón de tu esperanza?". Imagina que alguien se te acerca y te hace esa pregunta. No "¿qué es lo que esperas?" o "¿qué esperas hacer?". No; no se trata de los deseos de poseer cosas o de aspiraciones en la vida, sino "¿por qué tienes esperanza?". Hoy Pedro nos dice que debemos estar dispuestos a responder esta pregunta. A decir verdad, pocos son los que se dedican a pensar por qué tenemos esperanza. Por suerte, las Escrituras de hoy nos ofrecen la respuesta. Esperamos porque Cristo sufrió por nosotros, a fin de que podamos venir a Dios. Esperamos porque sabemos que, en el Espíritu, Dios nos concede otro Defensor en Cristo que permanecerá con nosotros por siempre. Sin importar lo que podamos esperar, o lo que esperamos poder hacer, siempre debemos saber y proclamar la razón de nuestra esperanza: la presencia de Dios en Cristo con nosotros por el poder del Espíritu.

SAINT RITA OF CASCIA (1381-1457)

May 22

If you're ever in Philadelphia on May 22, forget parking anywhere near Saint Rita's shrine. Cars line streets and fill medians as throngs pack a candlelight vigil and six Masses, honoring this patroness of lost causes, hopeless situations, and - as her statue in countless churches built by twentieth-century immigrants testifies - difficult marriages, troubled homes, and alienated children. Wise people warn, be careful what you pray for. "Divine Savior," Rita prayed, "let me suffer like you!" Obedient to parents who refused her wish to become a nun, Rita married a man who returned her devotion with twenty years of abuse. When enemies murdered him, Rita's two sons swore revenge. Paintings depict her pointing the angry boys toward Christ crucified, whom she begged to restrain them. Within the year, both sons died. Alone now, Rita went to the convent but was refused. The nuns feared violence, since one of them was related to the murderer. Rita arranged peace between the families, made vows, and became much sought after as a counselor and intercessor for forty years on earth - and ever since in heaven.

SAN CRISTÓBAL MAGALLANES Y COMPAÑEROS

(año 1915-1937)

21 de mayo

Uno de los capítulos más gloriosos de la historia de la Iglesia en México se escribió durante la persecución religiosa conocida como La Cristiada (1926-1929). El entonces Presidente de México decretó la suspensión de culto y toda celebración litúrgica se convirtió en algo ilegal, en una resistencia y desobediencia a una Constitución anticatólica. El pueblo se levantó en armas y defendió su derecho. Más de 20 sacerdotes y tres laicos fueron canonizados por sufrir heroicamente el martirio y no tomar las armas. Son increíbles los tormentos que muchos sufrieron, pero más increíble aun es la fidelidad que mantuvieron hacia Dios. Aunque san Cristóbal Magallanes encabeza la fiesta litúrgica de hoy, el mártir críster más conocido entre ellos es Santo Toribio Romo a quien nuestro pueblo lo ha identificado como el patrono de los indocumentados. De él se dice que encontró a un indocumentado en Tijuana y que lo ayudó a pasar a Los Ángeles y como gratitud le pidió que fuera a visitarlo a Santa Ana de Guadalupe, Jalisco. Al pagar el favor, le contaron la historia de su martirio.

SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

Easter is now five weeks behind us. Many of the flowers that celebrated Easter with us need a resurrection of their own. We have reveled in the new life of the risen Jesus and followed his path of appearances from tomb side to Emmaus to upper room to Galilee to five hundred seeing him at one time.

St. John I, Pope and Martyr (Feast day - May 18) A native of Tuscany in Italy, John was elected Pope while he was still an archdeacon upon the death of Pope Hormisdas in 523. At that time, the ruler of Italy was Theodoric the Goth who subscribed to the Arian brand of Christianity, but had tolerated and even favored his Catholic subjects during the early part of his reign. John served as pope for about three years before he died of maltreatment at the hands of the emperor's men.

St. Bernardine of Siena was an Italian priest and Franciscan missionary. He was a systematizer of Scholastic economics. His popular preaching made him famous during his own lifetime because it was frequently directed against sorcery, gambling, infanticide, witchcraft, sodomy, Jews, and usury. Bernardino was later canonized by the Catholic Church as a saint for his efforts to revive the country's Catholic faith during the 15th century.

St. Christopher Magallanes Companions.

St. Christopher Magallanes, along with 21 other priests and three lay companions, were martyred between 1915 and 1937, by shooting or hanging, throughout eight Mexican states, for their membership in the Cristero movement. Magallanes erected a seminary in Totatiche and he and his companions secretly preached and ministered to the faithful.

St. Rita of Cascia was an Italian widow and Augustinian nun venerated as a saint in the Roman Catholic Church. After Rita's husband died, she joined an Augustinian community of religious sisters, where she was known both for practicing mortification of the flesh and for the efficacy of her prayers. Various miracles are attributed to her intercession, and she is often portrayed with a bleeding wound on her forehead, which is understood to indicate a partial stigmata.

The Ascension of the Lord declares for all time that Jesus is the eternal Son of God and perfected and glorified man. The event was not an after-thought or an adjustment by God. It was part of the eternal plan of God that was established before creation. "But you shall receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you; and you shall be my witnesses in Jerusalem and in all Judea and Samaria and to the end of the earth." And when he had said this, as they were looking on, he was lifted up, and a cloud took him out of their sight.
