LITURGY CORNER

ACCESS TO OLA SUNDAY MASS:

Sunday Mass, celebrated by our Pastor, Fr. Edward Domme, is recorded weekly and posted on our website: www.olacs.org.

FOOD FROM HEAVEN

God sustained the people of Israel for forty years in the desert with manna sent down from heaven, and Moses doesn't want them to forget it. God brought forth water from stone for them to drink, and Moses doesn't want them to forget this, either. And Moses tells them - twice - that the food that God sent was a food that neither they nor their ancestors before them had ever experienced before.

Jesus too speaks of food come down from heaven, food that the Jewish people had never experienced before. Recalling the manna in the desert, Jesus doesn't want them to forget it either, explaining that he is the food and drink of eternal life. And Paul reiterates to the Corinthians and to all of us that in the bread and in the cup, we share in the body and blood of Christ.

ALIMENTO CELESTIAL

Dios sostentó al pueblo de Israel por cuarenta años en el desierto con maná venido del cielo, y Moisés no quiere que lo olviden. Dios hizo brotar agua de la roca para que bebieran, y Moisés tampoco quiere que olviden esto. Y Moisés se lo dice -dos veces - que el alimento que Dios envió era comida que ni ellos ni sus antepasados jamás habían probado antes.

Jesús, también habla del pan venido del cielo, comida que el pueblo judío jamás había probado antes. Recordando el maná del desierto, Jesús tampoco quiere que ellos lo olviden, explicándoles que él es pan y bebida para la vida eterna. Y Pablo les reitera a los corintios y a todos nosotros que en el pan y en la copa participamos en el Cuerpo y la Sangre de Cristo.

SAINT ROMUALD (c. 951-1027)

June 19

"God so loved the world," declares John 3:16. "Do not love the world," warns 1 John 2:15. The "world" to love: this planet, entrusted to our stewardship, and its people, God's children all. The "world" to flee: "sensual lust, enticement for the eyes, and a pretentious life" (1 John 2:16). Born in nobility, Romuald's conversion followed the shock of witnessing his father murder an enemy. Renouncing his privileged world, Romuald sought God's world in monastic life. Its winding turns and several dead ends make Romuald's journey resonate with all who find life more maze than superhighway. Both the hermit's solitary struggle and community life's unique challenges shaped Romuald's legacy: his vast Camaldolese Benedictine family of monks, nuns, and lay associates who, these thousand years later, from the mountain solitude of Camaldoli, Italy to an urban monastery in Berkeley, California - in Asia, Africa, South America, Europe - integrate Romuald's experience into their witness of solitary prayer, communal charity and worship, and promotion of contemplative spirituality in this world that can so easily distract us from the God who loves it still.

SAN ROMUALDO (c. 950-1027)

19 de junio

Romualdo fue el padre fundador de los monjes camaldulenses, imponiendo en ellos reglas más severas que las que san Benedicto había impuesto en su monasterio. Un hecho que transformó su vida fue el ver a su padre batirse a duelo, dando muerte a otra persona. Puesto que el rey Otón III lo había nombrado Abad, renunció al cargo por considerarlo de mucho prestigio para él, porque lo único que deseaba era ser un simple monje dedicado a la contemplación y la vida ermitaña. Con este espíritu viajó por toda Italia erigiendo ermitas y fundando conventos. Su capacidad de conversión era notable, pues llegó a convencer a su mismo padre de que se hiciera monje. De profundo amor a Dios y de voluntad férrea, quiso ser mártir y pidió al papa su permiso para ir a predicar el Evangelio a Hungría, pero cada vez que lo intentaba se enfermaba, así comprendió que Dios deseaba que se estableciera en el monasterio y reformara la vida tan holgada de muchos monjes de su tiempo, tarea que logró más allá de lo esperado.
