Mission Statement:

Created in God's image, we are the people of Our Lady of the Assumption Catholic Parish. In communion with the Roman Catholic Church and the Archdiocese of Santa Fe, we dedicate ourselves to living the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Guided by the Holy Spirit; nourished by the Sacraments; and under the Patronage of Our Lady of the Assumption; we strive to use our varied gifts and rich heritage to build the Body of Christ through worship, prayer, education, and service to all.

LITURGY CORNER

ACCESS TO OLA SUNDAY MASS

Sunday Mass, celebrated by our Pastor, Fr. Edward Domme, is recorded weekly and posted on our website: www.olacs.org.

CHRISTIAN HOSPITALITY

Day in and day out, we are required to make judgment calls informed by tough, durable, serviceable Christian love. We do what we can do, and God takes notice. God is in charge of rewards, and a glass of water will do when that is what we have to offer with a glad and open heart.

Paul gives us a clear theology for the missionary work we do whenever anybody is close at hand. He reminds us that our work, our ministry, is carried on in concert with Christ. We have been baptized into his death and life. In any given moment both life and death are there, a kind of play of shadow and light. Sometimes it's difficult to tell where shadow leaves off and light begins. God will take care of that, too.

HOSPITALIDAD CRISTIANA

En todo momento se requiere de nosotros que hagamos decisiones para la acción, informadas por el amor cristiano que es difícil, duradero y útil. Hacemos lo que podemos, y Dios presta atención. Dios se encarga de las recompensas, y un vaso de agua es suficiente cuando es lo que podemos proporcionar con corazón abierto y alegre.

Pablo nos da una teología clara para el trabajo misionero que hacemos cuando alguien está cerca. Nos recuerda que nuestro trabajo, nuestro ministerio, se cumple en coordinación con Cristo. Hemos sido bautizados en su muerte y en su vida. A cada momento, tanto la vida como la muerte están presentes, un juego de intercambio entre sombra y luz. A veces, es difícil diferenciar el margen entre la luz y la sombra. Pero, Dios se encargará de esto, también.

SAINT JUNÍPERO SERRA (1713-1784)

July 1

No one who has stood before the quiet majesty of Mission San Juan Capistrano, or the altogether different but no less lovely Mission Dolores in San Francisco, or any of the missions from San Diego to Sonoma can fail to bless the Franciscan padre who, while not founder of each, was inspiration for them all, Saint Junípero Serra. Abandoning the comfortable academic life to which his doctorate in theology entitled him, Serra journeyed to the New World where his tireless traveling, dramatic preaching, and penitential austerity converted thousands of native peoples. Saving souls and celebrating the sacraments were Padre Serra's primary mission but not his only one. Education in letters and crafts, trades and agriculture transformed the people, while roads and irrigation systems transfigured the landscape. His more than thirty years of ministry were not free from conflict with authorities or without controversy in the retrospectively critical eye of history. But when John Paul II beatified him in 1988, he praised Padre Serra for assisting his converts to use their new faith to advance their true human development.

SAN IRENEO (c. 130-200)

28 de junio

Ireneo nació en Esmirna, al occidente de Turquía. Desde joven fue discípulo de Policarpo, quien a su vez fue discípulo del apóstol Juan. Su vinculación a la Iglesia apostólica es directa y eso lo manifestó en su ministerio como obispo y escritor. En sus obras Contra los herejes, se preocupó no tanto por atacar a quienes tenían un concepto erróneo de la Iglesia y los misterios de la fe, sino de preservar la autenticidad de la fe cristiana predicada por los apóstoles. Una de las herejías que atacó fue la de los gnósticos, un grupo de cristianos que afirmaban que la salvación sólo venía por un conocimiento especial de Dios, disponible sólo para unos cuantos. Ireneo, además de maestro fue un gran pacificador, pues concilió las tensiones entre oriente y occidente en lo referente a la celebración de la Pascua, en la primera luna llena de la primavera. Movido por la necesidad, aprende los idiomas de la región de Francia y Alemania y va allá como su obispo, en medio de la persecución, donde a la postre, murió como mártir.

FROM THE ARCHDIOCESE

Reopening our church for public worship must include every precaution to eliminate a second wave of infection; consequently, the Archdiocese has established the following guidelines to protect you as well as our fellow parishioners.

Safest Practices for Attending Mass

Those feeling unwell or believe they may have been exposed to someone with COVID-19 should not attend Mass.

One should not attend Mass if he or she is experiencing any symptoms of illness, especially the following:

- A temperature above 100.4 F
 - Cough or sore throat
 - Shortness of breath
 - Recent loss of smell or taste
- Chills, muscle aches, or gastrointestinal upset

If attending Mass, one must adhere to the following:

All parishioners must wear a mask.

Maintain six feet of social distance from others who are not from the same household at all times while in the church or on church property.

Refrain from physical contact such as holding hands during the Our Father.

Choirs and singing will be held to a minimum.

Safest Practices for Receiving Communion

Newly available evidence shows that virus spreads quickly through oral secretions; therefore, communion is most safely received as follows:

Communion will be received in the hand.

Both the priest and the communicant will be wearing masks.

The priest and communicant will sanitize hands prior to distributing/receiving communion.

Communion lines will be avoided – wait for the usher to dismiss each row individually and communion will be distributed as you exit the Church.
