Today's Readings - July 2, 2023

2 Kings 4:8-11, 14-16 • Elisha and the Shunammite woman
Romans 6:3-4, 8-11 • Death to sin, life in God
Matthew 10:37-42 • Conditions and rewards of discipleship

The Gospel reading today is a continuation of last week's instructions to the apostles as Jesus sends them out to expand his work of healing, teaching, and driving out demons. The first half of the reading contains some solemn teachings: disciples must love Jesus more than their own families, and they must be willing to lose their lives in to find it.

Lecturas de hoy - 2 de Julio de 2023

2 Reyes 4:8-11, 14-16 • Eliseo y la mujer sunamita
Romanos 6:3-4, 8-11 • Muerte al pecado, vida en Dios
Mateo 10:37-42 • Condiciones y recompensas del discipulado

La lectura del Evangelio de hoy es una continuación de la última instrucciones de la semana pasada a los apóstoles cuando Jesús los envía para difundir su obra de curación, enseñanza, y expulsar demonios. La primera mitad de la lectura contiene algunas enseñanzas solemnes: Los discípulos deben amar Jesús más que sus propias familias, y deben ser dispuestos a perder la vida para encontrarla.

CATECHISTS NEEDED FOR YOUTH CONFIRMATION

Youth Confirmation is in need of additional Catechists to help teach classes for the up-coming year. We use a VIDEO program called "Chosen" that has 3-8 minute segments for each lesson. We use PowerPoint presentations to supplement the lessons. You do NOT have to commit to the entire year.
One or two lessons would be a big help!
 If you are interested, please call Deacon Jack at 505-459-9010 and we will send you a copy of the calendar to see if there is a topic you would like to teach.

The Parish Office will be CLOSED Monday July 3, & Tuesday July 4, 2023 for the Independence Day holiday.

NO Coffee & Donuts this week.

See you next month!

SECOND COLLECTION TODAY

There is a second collection today, July 1 & 2 2023, for Peter's Pence, which is a gesture of solidarity through which every member of the faithful can participate in the activity of the Pope as the Pastor of the universal Church.

Thank you for your generosity!

SEXUAL ABUSE PREVENTION

The Archdiocese of Santa Fe has instituted a policy requiring all employees, parishioners, school parents and siblings, 18 years of age or older who are involved in a parish or school ministry, to take the Abuse Awareness class every five (5) years. If it has been five years or greater since you have taken this class, you are required to attend a class offered at the Catholic Center or complete the online course.

In person classes can be found at the following address: <https://archdiosf.org/victims-assistance>, and scroll down to center of the page. There you will find the classes offered. You must contact the parish directly to register for their class.

For the online course information go the following address: <https://www.archdiosf.org>. On the menu bar click on the LINKS tab and then select VIRTUS - Child Protect training. Create your user ID and password and continue to first complete your background check and then complete the class. If you begin the class but cannot finish it, you can log off and sign in at a later date, the class will continue where you left off. Upon completion of the class, please print two certificates, one for your files and one to be submitted to the Parish office at olacs.church@gmail.com. Thank you!

RESPECT AT MASS

Please remember even with the warmer weather, Modesty is a virtue we should continue to practice, especially when receiving the Body of Christ.
 Thank you!

Word of the Week

Giving up our life for Jesus means more than just "to die." We must be willing to give up our worldly things, like money. It means we must give up bad habits that can destroy us.. It means we have to give up time doing things we like in order to spend time with Jesus. But, like balancing the scales, it is in giving that we receive. When we give we usually get something in return. With Jesus the gift is new life. As Christians we not only enjoy a new life here in the present world, we also receive the promise of new life in the world to come.

Palabra de la Semana

El dar nuestra vida por Jesús significa más que solamente «morir». Debemos estar dispuestos a dejar nuestras casas mundiales, como el dinero. Significa que debemos dejar los malos hábitos que nos pueden destruir. Significa que debemos de dejar tiempo para pasarlo con Jesús. Pero, como se balancea la balanza, es en el dar que recibimos. Cuando damos usualmente recibimos algo de regreso. Con Jesús el regalo es la nueva vida. Como cristianos no solamente disfrutamos de una nueva vida aquí en el mundo presente, también recibimos la promesa de una nueva vida en el mundo que viene.
