Created in God's image, we are the people of Our Lady of the Assumption Catholic Parish. In communion with the Roman Catholic Church and the Archdiocese of Santa Fe, we dedicate ourselves to living the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Guided by the Holy Spirit; nourished by the Sacraments; and under the Patronage of Our Lady of the Assumption; we strive to use our varied gifts and rich heritage to build the Body of Christ through worship, prayer, education, and service to all.

Today's Readings - November 5, 2023

Malachi 1:14b—2:2b, 8-10 Imperfect Sacrifices
1 Thessalonians 2:7b-9, 13 — Paul's Sincerity
Matthew 23:1-12 — Hypocrisy of the Scribes and Pharisees

The lesson Jesus gives us in the Gospel this week may seem to point to churchmen and women who enjoy their vestments and titles more than they enjoy good works. But the Gospel really speaks to all of us Christians who “wear” our religion as a way of making ourselves look good. We are thus reminded that our God sees who we really are. Realizing that, we can more easily humble ourselves and become the ones who serve the rest.

Lecturas de hoy - 5 de Noviembre de 2023

Malaquías 1:14b—2:2b, 8-10 Sacrificios imperfectos
1 Tesalonicenses 2:7b-9, 13 — La sinceridad de Pablo
Mateo 23:1-12 — Hipocresía de los escribas y fariseos

La lección que Jesús nos da en el Evangelio esta semana quizá señale a los hombres o mujeres de la iglesia que disfrutaban de sus vestimentas y títulos más de lo que disfrutaban las buenas obras. Pero el Evangelio verdaderamente nos habla a todos nosotros los Cristianos que “visten” nuestra religión como una manera de hacernos vernos bien. Se nos recuerda de que Dios nos ve como realmente somos. Dándonos cuenta de esto, más fácilmente podemos humillarnos y convertirnos en los que sirven a los demás.

Prayer for the Thirty-first Week in Ordinary Time

Pray daily: Lord, in giving us God as our Father, you taught us not to love our fathers and mothers less, but to love them for what they are: our guides to learning how to love as sons and daughters of God. Help me to model for everyone the same love for God and for others that you modeled for us. Amen.

† Rest in Peace †

Please pray for the repose of the souls for the following:

There will NOT be a Thanksgiving food box distribution this year.

As you know, this year has brought increased hardship for many in our community. To meet growing needs of others, we, St. Vincent de Paul, have focused our resources on providing daily essential support to those requiring assistance. Due to the increase in aid we have been delivering, through the generosity of our parishioners, this holiday season we will not be able to provide Thanksgiving food boxes. We are deeply grateful for your understanding.

Our mission remains to lift up and care for all people, especially during tough times. The spirit of Christmas is peace and goodwill towards others. In that tradition, we look forward to celebrating with you through our Christmas Angel Tree gift program. See more details below. Wishing you warmth, community, and joy this season.

St. Vincent de Paul Society

Roadrunner food bank will be giving out holiday food boxes just before Thanksgiving and Christmas.
