Today's Readings - May 19, 2024

First Reading:

We hear how the Holy Spirit allowed the mighty acts of God to be heard by people of all languages in every nation. Where do you see God at work in the world or in your workplace?

Second Reading:

Paul encouraged believers in Galatia to be guided by the fruit of the Spirit (joy, peace, self-control) rather than by the works of the flesh (immorality, lust, idolatry) in order to inherit the kingdom of God. How might you practice the fruits of the Spirit this week?

Gospel:

Jesus taught his disciples he would send the Advocate, the Spirit of truth, to guide them and offer them divine gifts. What guidance are you seeking from the Lord? ©LPI

Lecturas de hoy - 19 de Mayo de 2024

Primera Lectura:

Escuchamos cómo el Espíritu Santo permitió que los poderosos actos de Dios fueran escuchados por personas de todos los idiomas en cada nación. ¿Dónde ves a Dios trabajando en el mundo o en tu lugar de trabajo?

Segunda Lectura:

Pablo alentó a los creyentes en Galacia a ser guiados por el fruto del Espíritu (gozo, paz, dominio propio) en lugar de por las obras de la carne (inmoralidad, lujuria, idolatría) para heredar el reino de Dios. ¿Cómo podrías practicar los frutos del Espíritu esta semana?

Evangelio:

Jesús enseñó a sus discípulos que enviaría al Abogado, el Espíritu de verdad, para guiarlos y ofrecerles dones divinos. ¿Qué guía estás buscando del Señor? ©LPI

SAINT OF THE WEEK – EXAMPLES OF OUR FAITH

St. Pope Gregory VII

Short Bio — St. Pope Gregory VII was the initiator and namesake of the Gregorian Reforms of the 11th century. He worked to free the Church from the intrusion of civil leaders into the appointment of clergy. He recommitted the Church to unity in Christ and the Eucharist.

Biography

St. Gregory VII (c.1015-1085) was born in Italy and originally named Ildebrando di Sovana which translates to Hildebrand of Sovana. He grew up in a devout Catholic family and his uncle, Laurentius, was abbot of a monastery in Rome.

As a young man, Hildebrand became close with Pope Leo IX. He was made a cardinal subdeacon and a legate. As a papal legate he served in France, Germany, and Italy. After Pope Leo IX's death, Hildebrand became a leading figure in the papal court of the next few popes.

Shortly after the death of Pope Alexander II, Hildebrand was quickly ordained a priest and raised to the papacy. He chose the name Pope Gregory VII in honor of the first Pope Gregory whose writings heavily influenced him. During his time as pope, Gregory VII worked hard to reform the Church he so loved.

At the time, the Church was facing corruption. People in leadership were selling sacred offices and sacramentals, some clergy were unlawfully marrying, and kings and nobles, were controlling the appointment of Church officials. Pope Gregory VII fiercely resisted these corruptions. In fact, in order to put an end to the Roman Emperor Henry IV's control over which bishops were appointed, he excommunicated him three times. Pope Gregory VII's desire was to reunite the Church under the banner of Christ and the Holy Eucharist, instead of under the banner of whoever was richest and desired the most control.

Pope Gregory VII is remembered as one of the most important popes in Church history and lends his name to the Gregorian Reform, the period of reform in the Church that secured freedom from the intrusion of civil rulers. Saint Pope Gregory VII, pray for us!
